REPORTING A CLAIM

1. What is a Claim?

It is important to realize that “Claims” are not limited to lawsuits. Claims consist of written demands for monetary or non-monetary relief. Threatening or accusatory letters (from attorneys or otherwise); administrative charges before the EEOC or local administrative body; or even internal complaints or grievances by employees could be “Claims” and should be reported to the insurance carrier. Even if you don’t believe the matter rises to the level of a formal “Claim” it should still be reported as a potential Claim so that you don’t violate policy reporting requirements.

2. When do I report a Claim?

The policy requires that you report a Claim as soon as practicable but no later than 60 days after the expiration of the policy during which the claim is asserted. Failure to comply with these reporting requirements can result in a loss of coverage even if there is no gap in insurance policy issuance. If during the policy period, you become aware of “potential” Claim circumstances, those circumstances should be reported prior to the expiration of that policy period.

3. How do I report a Claim?

Notice of a Claim (including your contact information, policy number and any documentation regarding the Claim) may be reported via several methods:

Written Notice

Written notice of a Claim should be addressed to the following:

Philadelphia Insurance Companies
One Bala Plaza, Suite 100
Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004
Attention: Claims Department

Fax Notice

The information can also be faxed to Philadelphia Insurance Companies at 800-685-9238.

Online Notice

You may log onto www.phly.com and use the “Report a Claim” tab, then provide the requested information.

E-mail Notice

You may e-mail the Claim information to claimsreport@phlyins.com.

Regardless of which method is utilized to report the Claim to Philadelphia Insurance Companies, It is recommended that you also send a copy of the claim notification to:

American Specialty Insurance & Risk Services, Inc.
142 North Main Street
Roanoke, IN 46783
Attention: Lowell Gratigny
Fax: 260-673-1291
E-mail: claims@fastcov.com

4. What Happens After I Report a Claim?

After you report a Claim, Philadelphia Insurance Companies will set up a file, assign a Claim Number, and a Claims Examiner will contact you to address the matter further.

POLICYHOLDER NOTICE (LOSS ASSISTANCE HOTLINE)

We are pleased to enclose an original copy of your policy. Please take a moment to review the policy to ensure it meets your needs.

Please feel free to contact our local sales representatives or our customer service unit at 877-GET-PHLY, if you need further assistance.

As a free loss control benefit to our policyholders, Philadelphia Insurance Companies (PIC) has partnered with a nationally recognized law firm Wilson, Elser, Moskowitz, Edelman and Dicker LLP (WEMED), to offer a toll-free Loss Assistance Hotline. The toll-free loss assistance hotline telephone number is 1-877-742-2201. You can also contact a WEMED attorney online at either of the following internet addresses: <http://www.wemed.com/pic/> or <http://www.losscontrol.com>. This hotline provides policyholders 2 free hours of legal consultation with a knowledgeable attorney on any matter that could potentially result in a claim under your PIC policy. This loss assistance hotline is NOT a loss reporting hotline. To report a claim, read the claim reporting instructions in your Policy, or ask your agent. If you have questions concerning the loss assistance hotline, please contact us at 1-800-759-4961 x7717.

The Philadelphia Insurance Companies thanks you for choosing us to meet your insurance needs.

Sincerely,

Philadelphia Insurance Companies
